IMPERIAL PLANT TO BE KEPT HERE IF POSSIBLE

Business Men's Association to Investigate Proposition

LEASE EXPIRES SOON

Raise in Rent Declared and Company Refuses to Agree to New Scale

The Imperial Bottle factory will not be removed to any other town if the members of the Charleroi Business Men's Association count for anything. N ext September the lease the Imperial Glass company has on thep lant at the foot of Tenth street will expire. Then, unless satisfactory arrangements can be made the factory will be removed elsewhere. It is stated the company which rents the plant to the Imperial Glass company has declared a raise in the amount of rent, effective September 1. This raise has met with decided opposition on the part of the local company, which has practically settled on a point of location to remove to.

Friday night a meeting of the Charleroi Business Men's Association was held and a committee consisting of John H. Bowers, W. H.Milliken and Charles O. Frye was appointed to confer with the directors of the Second National Bank of Pittsburg, which rents the property regarding the rent problem. They are also to make investigations into other plans for keeping the factory here.

The Imperial plant came to Charleroi five years ago, occupying the plant owned previously by the Hamilton company, on a five-year term lease. Charleroi business men gave a bonus of $10,000. The plant started operation in September of thesame year that the lease was secured and has been operating since, giving employment to between 200 and 300 men and boys. The payroll was to have been at least $100,000 a year by agreement with the local business men. However, this payroll has been overrun each year by the company which has paid in salaries and wages on an average of about $125,000 or $130,000 each year since it started.

POPULATION OF MONESSEN GROWS ASTONISHINGLY

According to the report of A. L. Arner, vital statistician for the Monessen district the total number of births for the district during January was 107, and the deaths 24. In Monessen directly there were 61 births and 15 deaths. This will probably mean a new school building for Monessen within a year. Carrying out this propoertion of births every month the number for the entire year will be over 700. Charleroi's birth rate during recent years has been less than 400. As a matter of fact the average per month of births here runs little over 30.

No Questions; Bill is Paid

Pittsburg Steel Settles With School District for Windows Broken by Slag

No questions were asked by the Pittsburg Steel company, when a bill for $32.80 was presented to it by the North Charleroi school district for "windows broken," but a check was sent at once for the amount being placed in Secretary S. W. Sharpneck's hands otday. The windows were broken by an explosian caused by dumping hot slag into the river. The school building ocupies a site on the hill opposite where the slag was dumped.

MINERS INVITED TO COME

Invitation Extended Friday by Charleroi Committee

WILL DECIDE TODAY

A committee from the Charleroi Business Men's Association consisting of John B. Schafer, Burgess Geo. W. Risbeck and Tom P. Sloan attended the district convention of the Pittsburg District miners at Pittsburg Friday, and on the floor, tendered the body an invitation to come to Charleroi next year for their annual convention. Mr. Sloan made the speech of invitation. John Ferry, and R. Green, of Charleroi, were present representing the Central Trades Council. Mr. Ferry made a talk, in which he urged the miners to gravely consider the invitation. Action will probably be taken today.

SAVIOR MADE BIG SACRIFICE SAYS REV. H. AGATE

At the Baptist church Friday night, Rev. Herbert Agate, who is conducting evangelistic services this week preached his last sermon of a series of four on the subject of "Why I Should be a Christian." He spoke of the sacrifices, physically and spiritually of Christ, that the people of today might be saved and emphasized the bigness of his sacrifice, showing convincingly the reasons people of today should be Christians.

SPEAKERS SECURED FOR LOCAL BANQUET

Attorney Marron of Pittsburg, and Prof. E. E. Bach of Ellsworth Among Men te be Heard Here on March 6

Among the chief speakers for the annual banquet of the Charleroi Business Men's association which will be held on Thursday, Feb. 6, will be Attorney John Marron, of Pittsburg and E. E. Bach, sociological superintendent of the Ellsworth Collieries company. Not only the members of the Business Men's association will be admitted to the banquet but also their ladies as well as persons considering applying for membership and other ladies.

Harry J. Booth, superintendent of the Imperial Glass plant will be the toastmaster for the banquet. The banquet will be informal. A social program is to follow the speaking. Jenkins' orchestra will furnish music. The banquet will be held at Turner Hall.

In addition to Attorney Marron and Prof. Bach, there will be other well known men as speakers. Among them may be A. G. Mitchell, superintendent of the Monongahela division, Pennsylvania railroad and W. S. Franklin—of the Pennsylvania railroad. Both have been invited. Members of business men's associations or civic organizations in other towns have been invited.

IGNORANCE OF LAWS POSSIBLE CAUSE OF SPREAD OF DISEASE

Ignorance of the law probably had the indirect effect of fostering the epidemic of measles from which Charleroi is just emerging now. In numerous cases the disease was not serious. In fact though it was readily recognized by the parents of the afflicted children it was not serious enough in these particular cases to warrant calling a doctor. The result was, no quarantine. Consequently people would not be as careful. Visitors with children, would carry away the measles or in some cases the people themselves would spread it.

After a child has had the measles it is necessary to secure a permit from the health authorities before the child can re-enter school. The period of quarantine calls for 21 days Where the health officer was not notified, of course there could be no way of keeping track of this quarantine, and considerable embarassment was caused.

The fine for not reporting contagious diseases to the health authorities ranges from $5 to $20 or not less than 30 days in jail.

LIEUTENANT OF MADERO KNOWN HERE

One of the men who lost his job with the Mexican government when President Francisco Madero was told to vacate, was Alfred Hernandez, who was closely allied with Madero, and was in reality one of the head men of the government. Hernandez is known in Charleroi, though probably by but one person. When he attended a linotype school in New York City a couple of years ago, H. E. Price, business manager of the Mail met Hernandez, who was there to attend the same school. Hernandez told at the time that he was sure of a good job with the new government, and that he had been sent to New York by the Madero associates. He was to be put in charge of a Madero paper. Madero came into power and the scheme was carried out. Whether Hernandez was killed is not known.

TAKES THE JUNK OUT OF JUNKET; STOP TO LEGISLATIVE WINING

A dispatch from Harrisburg states that Governor Tener has notified the members of the legislature that hereafter they will not be wined and dined when they go on tours of inspection through the state. The Governor sent word to all institutions getting state aid that in the future they will not be expected to entertain legislative committees beyond showing them through the institutions.

Gov. Tener explained that in Scranton two years ago a legislative committee was met with motor cars, had a theatre party, witnessed a special boxing match and at midnight enjoyed a wine party. The institution got a large appropriation.

SOL SAYS HE IS HAPPY; HOPES OTHERS SAME

It didn't take Sol Blaw, the "Cravat King," long to comprehend the strategic importance of Charleroi in a commercial way. Sol is making his way from New York to San Francisco on the proceeds of a "two-bit" tie he is selling—which by the way has merit and is a bangain—and hopes to get to Frisco by the time the Panama Exposition opens. He blew into Charleroi last week where he established headquarters and proceeded to work the various towns of the valley. Sol is not a commercial man in thesense that the traveling fraternity is regarded, but he saw at once what the old timers already know and take advantage of, that by making Charleroi headquarters he could go to all the towns in the upper valley with his base of supplies at a most strategic and convenient point. He took advantage of the situation and has been in and out of the town every day during the past week.

"I saw the mayor of Monongahela and a lot of the other officials yesterday and they all treated me fine. I was at California and was equally well received. I feel happy myself this morning and would like to see everybody else in the same frame of mind," said Sol notwithstanding the darkness and gloom of the weather conditions outside.

BOY FOUND DRUNK IN A BOX CNR

Mike Mikata, 12 years old, was found in a box car at Monessen by thepolice in a drunken stupor. He was taken to the lockup, where after he recovered he told how he and his older brother, George Mikata, 14 years old, and another lad by the name of Walter Simiski, broke into a box car of merchandise on the siding. They stole a bottle of whiskey from a case and some other things and started for Webster. They drank so much of the whiskey that they could not proceed and started back to Monessen. Mike the younger lad was ovehcome and crawled into a box car to sleep off the effects of the whiskey The police are looking for the other two boys.

WASHINGTON-GREENE DISTRICT THE LATEST

Congressional Appointment Will Change Things

FAYETTE ONE ALONE

Western Pennsylvania to Get Three of Four New Representatives

Under a proposed plan for the reapportionment of Pennsylvania Congressional districts as permitted by the census taken in 1910. Washington county will bejoined with Greene. Beaver and Lawrence, which now compose with Washington county the twenty-fourth Congressional district will be joined with Butler, and compose the twenty-seventh. Provided the new reapportionment scheme goes into effect, Washington and Grene will be known as the twenty-sixth district. Somerset and Cambria will comprise the twenty-fourth district.

Pennsylvania, based upon the increase in poulation during the 10 years since 1900 is entitled to four additional congressmen. These additional representatives will have seats in the Sixty-third Congress, but but until the redistricting has been carried out they will represent the state at large. Under the reapportionment plan they will be assigned districts.

The Republican membership of the national house of representatives, and United States Senators Boise Penrose and George T. Oliver of Pennsylvania have agreed to the plan as proposed. State Senator J. G. Homsher, of Lancaster county is expected to offer a bill in the Legislature at Harrisburg shortly embodying the plan. Representative W. W. Griest of Lancaster has consulted with the Pennsylvania senators as well as with his house colleagues and has found that the project meet with their approval.

Western Pennsylvania will get three of the four new Congressman. Of the alloted three, Allegheny county gets one, and the other two are acounted for by making Westmoreland and Fayette counties separate districts. Westmoreland is now linked with Butler and Fayette in the district with Somerset and Greene. The fourth of the alloted number goes to Philadelphia county. The congressional ratio is one member fo reach 215,212 of population.

REMEMBER BIRTHDAYS NOTED MEN

Schools Celebrate in Honor of Washington and Lincoln

ROOMS ARE DECORATED

Programs commemorative of the lives and deeds of two noted men born during the month of February, Washington and Lincoln, were given in the various grades of the local schools Friday. The day was also observed as the first Patron's Day of the year, and a large number took advantage of the special opportunity of visiting the schools.

The programs were entirely patriotic, although in some of the grades they took the form of following out the usual line of studies. Recitations, orations and essays were given by the children. Every room and building was beautifully decorated with the national colors. In High School a literary program was given.

THE IMMORTAL WASHINGTON

While the public observes in various ways the anniversary of the birth of the immortal George Washington, which occurs today, we do perhaps realize how much we owe to the undaunted courage. the military genius and the lofty patriotism of this great man. Every school boy and girl is familiar to a certain extent with the career of Washington, but his character and genius are comparatively little comprehended by the public at large.

It may not be generally known that but for the undaunted courage and personality of Washington in the darkest days of the Revolution, the effort for independence would have collopsed entirely. Washington alone kept alive the spark of patriotism that at times was all but extinguished. When the continental congress appeared to be at the end of its resources the great Washington, as commander in chief of the "Ragged Continentals," passionately declared again and again that he would never lay down his arms, but would retreat to the wilderiness west of the Allegheny mountains if necessary and there establish a free republic in the colonies would no longer support the struggle for freedom. This undaunted spirit ultimately prevailed and had the effect of reviving the ebbing courage of the colonies.

In Washington was developed the highest type of military genius. This is not generally realized, because of the lofty and unselfish patriotism of Washington. Even in his day his military ability was recognized and admired by the great soldiers of continental Europe and the aged Fredrick the Great of Prussia, the victor of many battle fields and conquests, expressed his admiration in the presentation of a sword to Washington with the inscription, "From the oldest to the greatest soldier." The great Napoleon admired the genius of Washington and patterned after him in many of his campaigns.

But it is the patriot and the statesman that we most admire. Washington was wealthy for that day and accepted no salary for his services as commander-in-chief of the American army. It was his personality to a large extent that preserved order and stability after Independence had been won, and his statesmanship was of as high an order as his military genius. All his efforts were for his country and he displayed no selfishness nor desire for self advancement or personal gain. These were the things that made him great, and his patriotism is today the shining example of all the ages.

Funny Blunders.

The following is surely the funniest vote of thanks uttered for a long time. The speaker with evidently the best intentions in the world nervously blundered along through various sentences complimentary to the lecturer and finally thickered out feebly thus: "And so I propose a vote of thanks for the lecture to which we have so ably listened." The audience was so wearied that it did not notice the fatuous remark and only the lecturer smiled.

It is fit to be placed beside another muddle headed sentence made in conversation to a north London clergyman. A man had been pressing his views energetically on a certain question when suddenly he paused and, looking at the clergyman, said briskly "And now, sir, what is your humble opinion?"—London Tit-Bits.

Indian Names.

The finest Indian names are those which belong to the cloud clan. All these names are derived from meteorological phenomena. They are the hardest of names to translate from Indian into English. The great cloud clan Sioux, whose name was really Eclipse, was always known to the whites as Hole-in-the-Day. A certain cloud clan girl, whose name was derived from the beautiful phenomenon of the slow advance of the approaching rainCloud, was known to the whites as Walking Rain—a pretty name but one requiring explanation to a tenderfoot.—Exchange.

Old Times in New York.

In 1789 New York city maintained an official who would whip a servant, either free or slave, for the master, charging a shilling for the job. Petty thieves were branded for life with a "T" on the cheek. Mrs Johanna Young and another woman convicted of grand larceny were driven all over the city in an open cart, then stripped to the waist and given thirty-nine lashes apiece in public and then banished "whereupon," says the record, "they went to Philadelphia."

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"The washtub is doubling the cost of maintaining Ohio's industrial schools." This was the statement of Henry Neil, father of mothers' pensions, after a visit to the boys' reformatory at Lancaster, Ohio.

Neil and Superintendent Hastings of the reformatory, personally interviewed a great number of the boys. They found that the mothers of 60 per cent of the unfortunate youngsters were doing washing. Most of the boys came from large families where the mother had to take in washing to support her children.

One boy had just arrived from Cincinnatti.

"There are five children in our family," the lad told Neil. "Mother was going out washing, but she coudn't earn enough to make ends meet, and I ran away from school and got work to help her. I was arrested for truancy and sent here."

"If the state spent one tenth of themoney on mothers' pensions that it spends to maintain the girls' school at Delaware and the boys' school at Lancaster," said Neil, "it would keep mothers and children whose only offense is poverty, together in happy homes and reduce the cost of its reformatories by one half.

"If the state would spend a small fraction of the $650,000 a year that's expended on the militia in keeping good mothers out of other folks' laundries and letting them abide in their own homes to rear their chilren properly, it would reduce by 50 per cent. the number of children in its industrial schools.

"It's cheaper in every way. It costs an average of $14 a month for thes tate to keep a boy at Lancaster Poor mothers in Chicago are keeping their families together with the aid of a pension averaging $7 for each child.

"Ohio is spending millions in trying to care for the wrecks caused by juvenile poverty. when it could by one tenth of the expense for mothers' pensions prevent the wrecks.

"Agreed," said Captain Hastings, of the boys' reformatory: "I'm with you for it."

Peers and Beers.

The Percy family of England—the family of the dukes of Northumberland—preserves in its archives the Northumberland household book, a kind of steward's journal that is chiefly remarkable for its account of the incredible quantity of liquor our ancestors consumed

Back in the middle ages before the Prohibition movement began, the Earl and Countess of Percy, the Northumberland household book states, drank with their 7 o'clock breakfast a quart of beer and a quart of wine For dinner, at 10 o'clock, they drank a gallon of beer and two quarts of wine At supper they drank two quarts of beer and two quarts of wine, and at "livery," a meal which was served in the bedroom at 9 o'clock in the evening they drank a gallon of beer and a quart of wine That is to say, provided that the Earl and Countess of Percy drank fair, each consumed daily five quarts and a pint of beer—say, twenty-two glasses apiece—and six quarts of wine—say thirty glasses apiece. claret size

The clerk here intervened

"But the charge is not yet proved We have not heard the evidence."

Then the benignant baillie:

"Ah, well, John, my man, as the charge is not proved we'll just fine you an eighteenpence"—London Telegraph

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE GRAND—PITTSBURG.

The engagement if Miss Irene Franklin to head Mr. Davis' program of artistic vaudeville in the Grand next week, beginning Monday afternoon, February 24, is rich in the promise of delightful divertisement, for Miss Franklin, seconded by Burt Green at the piano, is a vocal caricaturist of the first quality. She is offering a selection from a repertoire of original songs, the lyrics of which are from her own fluent pen the music by Mr. Green. Miss Franklin is topping the innovation of song by any of her old successes the audience may request but is featuring a number of new ditties—new this season and consequently never heard in Pittsburg. There are four particularly fetching numbers. One of these is called "Waiting up for Hubby" another "We've Got a New Baby at Our House," the third "Farewell, Broadway, Fare Thee Well," and the fourth "Makes Me Sick." Like all Miss Franklin's songs, there is a story to each number.

The program also introduces for the first time in several seasons the inimitable tramp juggler and silent humorist, W. C. Fields, who has been girdling the globe and tickling the ribs of every nationality under the sun. The Four Entertainers are a quartet of young men who are to blend tuneful songs with genteel comedy. Mary Barley's bull dogs will play a comedy of the music halls. Miss Barley has trained her canines so that they act of their own volition, each playing his part and making his entrance and exits like a human actor. From far off Australia comes Harry Atkinson an artist with a most remarkable vocal development, who imitates the sounds of a variety of musical instruments and recites nursery rhymes. London will contribute one of her most popular singing comediennes, Made P. Maitland, who will introduce original creations and impersonations. The J. C. Booth Trio, consisting of two men and a girl, will perform upon the bicycle introducing comic and sensational riding. Besides a variety of other attractions Mr. Davis will present a new play by the Kinemacolor motion picture process.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG.

The triumph of three cities, Chicago, Boston and New York, where it broke the record for actual receipts in real money, with record breaking runs of 150 and 200 nights in each place, comes Lew Fields' All Star "Hanky Panky" company on it's triumphal return for a week's engagement at the Alvin Theatre, Pittsburg. Commencing Monday, February 24, with the usual matinees.

"Hanky Panky" is just what it's title seems to indicate and that is a pet-pourri of screamingly funny nonsense, varied by songs, dances and spectacle on a mammoth scale. It is a show that requires a clever company and that has always been Lew Fields' long suit; providing the right sort of people.

Edgar Smith, E. Ray Goetz and A. Baldwin Sloane wrote the book, lyrics and music. This is the same wonderfully successful trio, who once again during the past season scored such a "knock-out" with their latest success, "The Sun Dodgers."

Among the principals are Max Rogers, (surviving members of the Rogers Brothers) Bobby North, Harry Cooper, Hugh Comeron, Clay Smith, Christine Nielsen, Myrtle Gilbert, Flo May, Virginia Evans, Wm. Montgomery and Florence Moore.

Among the song hits in "Hanky Panky" are "Where the Eidelweiss is Blooming," "Rose of Pyramid Land," "The Lyre Bird and the Jay," "Meet me at the Stage Door Tonight," "The Million Dollar Ball," "Dixie Love"

PROPOSALS FOR THE PUBLIC PRINTING AND BINDING FOR THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA In compliance with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly, entitled An act to create the Department of Public Printing and Binding, to carry out the provisions of section twelve, article three of the Constitution, in relation to the public printing and binding and the supply of paper and other materials therefor," approved the 7th day of February, A. D. 1905, and the amended act thereto, approved May 11, 1911, I hereby advertise for sealed proposals for executing all the public printing and binding of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the term of four years from the first day of July next, at a certain rate per centum below the rates specified in said act and the rates and conditions set forth in form of proposal to be submitted by each bidder. All proposals must be sealed up and endorsed, "Proposals for the Public Printing and Binding," and be delivered to me on the fourth Tuesday of February, A. D. 1913, being the 25th day of the month, before twelve o'clock M., and the bidder or bidders must accompany his or their proposal with a bond to the Commonwealth, with at least two sufficient sureties, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars conditioned for the acceptance of the contract and faithful performance of the work in the manner provided for in said act.

The sufficiency of said bond and the sureties thereto must be certified to by the judge or judges of the county in which said sureties reside, as required by said act.

All proposals will be opened by me in the presence of those bidding, at my office in the State Capitol in the city of Harrisburg, at twelve o'clock M. of said fourth Tuesday, being the 25th day of February, A. D. 1913, and all the printing and binding publicly alloted to the person or persons who propose to execute the same at the highest rate per centum below the rates fixed by the schedule annexed to the aforesaid acts of the General Assembly, and the rates as fixed by the Superintendent of Public Printing and Binding in said proposal, and who shall give the bond required by law, said allotment to be approved by the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and not to be binding until so approved.

Blank bonds and blank forms of proposals will be furnished on application to me, and specimen samples as a standard for quality of work which the contractor or contractors will be required to execute can be seen at the office of the Superintendent of Public Printing and Binding.

Roman Masons' Tools.

The excavations at Pompeii and Herculaneum have unearthed masons' tools much resembling those in use today and demonstrated the freer use of large tiles, the employment of iron to tie together brick and stone work and the use of a kind of concrete of which lime was the binding medium and finely broken brick a favorite material. The dome of the Pantheon, built in the first century of the Christian era, still testifies to the enduring nature of the concrete superstructure, albeit bound with lime and not with cement.—National Magazine.

COMMITTEE OF 100 AT WORK AT WASHINGTON

Washington has a Committee of One Hundred, and this week it met and passed resolutions commending and approving the action of the borough council in dismissing a police officer charged with drunkenness. The committee also deplored the action of the chairman of the police committee and all other councilmen who voted aginst such dismissal. District Attorney R. G. Miller was also commended for his action in prosecuting serious violations of the law and taking the initiative in these matters and following them up with energy.

A resolution was also passed by the committee urging all parents to keep their children under the ages of 18 years and especially girls off the streets after nightfall. The committee urges council to enforce the curfew law and make all persons under the age of 18 years subject to the curfew.

HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS FAST WASHINGTON

The Charleroi High School basketball team won its fifth straight game when on Friday night it defeated the East Washington High team by the score of 39 to 12. "COLDS"

Caused by Lowered Vital Resistance.
What To Do For This.

It is a well known fact that when a person is run-down, stomach out of ordder, or the system overloaded with waste matter vital resistance is lowered and colds and coughs are easily contracted.

The safest and suerst method we know to overcome this condition is by taking our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol. In the most natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, promotes a hearty appetite, enrishes the blood and creates strength for every organ in the body and as specific for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles Vinol is unexcelled.

Mr. Albert Porter of Richmond Hill, L. I., says: "All winter I had a bad cold and a cough which I could not get rid of, and was badly rundown besides. Vinol was the one remedy which cured my cough and made me well in every way."

Try a bottle of Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to help you.

WASHINGTON SOCIAL HELD BY P. H. C.

A George Washington social was held by Charleroi Circle, No. 303, Protected Home Circle Friday night, it being the first annual event of the kind. The hall was uniquely and beautifully decorated, John McIlvaine and Bert Mitchell having attended to this feature. Favors of hatchets were given. Visitors were present from Monessen, California and Belle Vernon. The event closed with square dancing. A special committee looked after the event, and the women members of this committee were dressed as Colonial dames. The committee was composed of Misses Rilla Field, Mary Allison, Romola Anderson, Mrs. Bert Mitchell, Mrs. Nell Strauser, Mrs. C. Blanchard, Mrs. James McCoy, Mrs Samuel Riggle, C. B. Copeland, H. IMPERIAL PLANT TO BE KEPT HERE IF POSSIBLE

Business Men's Association to Investigate Proposition

LEASE EXPIRES SOON

Raise in Rent Declared and Company Refuses to Agree to New Scale

The Imperial Bottle factory will not be removed to any other town if the members of the Charleroi Business Men's Association count for anything. N ext September the lease the Imperial Glass company has on thep lant at the foot of Tenth street will expire. Then, unless satisfactory arrangements can be made the factory will be removed elsewhere. It is stated the company which rents the plant to the Imperial Glass company has declared a raise in the amount of rent, effective September 1. This raise has met with decided opposition on the part of the local company, which has practically settled on a point of location to remove to.

Friday night a meeting of the Charleroi Business Men's Association was held and a committee consisting of John H. Bowers, W. H.Milliken and Charles O. Frye was appointed to confer with the directors of the Second National Bank of Pittsburg, which rents the property regarding the rent problem. They are also to make investigations into other plans for keeping the factory here.

The Imperial plant came to Charleroi five years ago, occupying the plant owned previously by the Hamilton company, on a five-year term lease. Charleroi business men gave a bonus of $10,000. The plant started operation in September of thesame year that the lease was secured and has been operating since, giving employment to between 200 and 300 men and boys. The payroll was to have been at least $100,000 a year by agreement with the local business men. However, this payroll has been overrun each year by the company which has paid in salaries and wages on an average of about $125,000 or $130,000 each year since it started.

POPULATION OF MONESSEN GROWS ASTONISHINGLY

According to the report of A. L. Arner, vital statistician for the Monessen district the total number of births for the district during January was 107, and the deaths 24. In Monessen directly there were 61 births and 15 deaths. This will probably mean a new school building for Monessen within a year. Carrying out this propoertion of births every month the number for the entire year will be over 700. Charleroi's birth rate during recent years hes been less than 400. As a matter of fact the average per month of births here runs little over 30.

No Questions; Bill is Paid

Pittsburg Steel Settles With School District for Windows Broken by Slag

No questions were asked by the Pittsburg Steel company, when a bill for $32.80 was presented to it by the North Charleroi school district for "windows broken," but a check was sent at once for the amount being placed in Secretary S. W. Sharpnack's hands otday. The windows were broken by an explosian caused by dumping hot slag into the river. The school building ocupies a site on the hill opposite where the slag was dumped.

WILL DECIDE TODAY

A committee from the Charleroi Business Men's Association consisting of John B. Schafer, Burgess Geo. W. Risbeck and Tom P. Sloan attended the district convention of the Pittsburg District miners at Pittsburg Friday, and on the floor, tendered the body an invitation to come to Charleroi next year for their annual convention. Mr. Sloan made the speech of invitation. John Ferry, and R. Green, of Charleroi, were present representing the Central Trades Council. Mr. Ferry made a talk, in which he urged the miners to gravely consider the invitation. Action will probably be taken today.

SAVIOR MADE BIG SACRIFICE SAYS REV. H. AGATE

At the Baptist church Friday night, Rev. Herbert Agate, who is conducting evangelistic services this week preached his last sermon of a series of four on the subject of "Why I Should be a Christian." He spoke of the sacrifices, physically and spiritually of Christ, that the people of today might be saved and emphasized the bigness of his sacrifice, showing convincingly the reasons people of today should be Christians.

SPEAKERS SECURED FOR LOCAL BANQUET

Attorney Marron of Pittsburg, and Prof. E. E. Bach of Ellsworth Among Men te be Heard Here on March 6

Among the chief speakers for the annual banquet of the Charleroi Business Men's association which will be held on Thursday, Feb. 6, will be Attorney John Marron, of Pittsburg and E. E. Bach, sociological superintendent of the Ellsworth Collieries company. Not only the members of the Business Men's association will be admitted to the banquet but also their ladies as well as persons considering applying for membership and other ladies.

Harry J. Booth, superintendent of the Imperial Glass plant will be the toastmaster for the banquet. The banquet will be informal. A social program is to follow the speaking. Jenkins' orchestra will furnish music. The banquet will be held at Turner Hall.

In addition to Attorney Marron and Prof. Bach, there will be other well known men as speakers. Among them may be A. G. Mitchell, superintendent of the Monongahela division, Pennsylvania railroad and W. S. Franklin of the Pennsylvania railroad. Both have been invited. Members of business men's associations or civic organizations in other towns have been invited.

IGNORANCE OF LAWS POSSIBLE CAUSE OF SPREAD OF DISEASE

Ignorance of the law probably had the indirect effect of fostering the epidemic of measles from which Charleroi is just emerging now. In numerous cases the disease was not serious. In fact thoughit was readily recognized by the parents of the afflicted children it was not serious enough in these particular cases to warrant calling a doctor. The result was, no quarantine. Consequently people would not be as careful. Visitors with children, would carry away the measles or in some cases the people themselves would spread it.

After a child has had the measles it is necessary to secure a permit from the health authorities before the child can re-enter school. The period of quarantine calls for 21 days Where the health officer was not notified, of course there could be no way of keeping track of this quarantine, and considerable embarassment was caused.

The fine for not reporting contagious diseases to the health authorities ranges from $5 to $20 or not less than 30 days in jail.

LIEUTENANT OF MADERO KNOWN HERE

One of the men who lost his job with the Mexican government when President Francisco Madero was told to vacate, was Alfred Hernandez, who was closely allied with Madero, and was in reality one of the head men of the government. Hernandez is known in Charleroi, though probably by but one person. When he attended a linotype school in New York City a couple of years ago, H. E. Price, business manager of the Mail met Hernandez, who was there to attend the same school. Hernandez told at the time that he was sure of a good job with the new government, and that he had been sent to New York by the Madero associates. He was to be put in charge of a Madero paper. Madero came into power and the scheme was carried out. Whether Hernandez was killed is not known.

TAKES THE JUNK OUT OF JUNKET; STOP TO LEGISLATIVE WINING

A dispatch from Harrisburg states that Governor Tener has notified the members of the legislature that hereafter they will not be wined and dined when they go on tours of inspection through the state. The Governor sent word to all institutions getting state aid that in the future they will not be expected to entertain legislative committees beyond showing them through the institutions.

Gov.Tener explained that in Scranton two years ago a legislative committee was met with motor cars, had a theatre party, witnessed a special boxing match and at midnight enjoyed a wine party. The institution got a large appropriation.

SOL SAYS HE IS HAPPY; HOPES OTHERS SAME

It didn't take Sol Blaw, the "Cravat King," long to comprehend the strategic importance of Charleroi in a commercial way. Sol is making his way from New York to San Francisco on the proceeds of a "two-bit" tie he is selling—which by the way has merit and is a bargain—and hopes to get to Frisco by the time the Panama Exposition opens. He blew into Charleroi last week where he established headquarters and proceeded to work the various towns of the valley. Sol is not a commercial man in thesense that the traveling fraternity is regarded, but he saw at once what the old timers already know and take advantage of, that by making Charleroi headquarters he could go to all the towns in the upper valley with his base of supplies at a most strategic and convenient point. He took advantage of the situation and has been in and out of the town every day during the past week.

"I saw the mayor of Monongahela and a lot of the other officials yesterday and they all treated me fine. I was at California and was equally well received. I feel happy myself this morning and would like to see everybody else in the same frame of mind," said Sol notwithstanding the darkness and gloom of the weather conditions outside.

BOY FOUND DRUNK IN A BOX CNR

Mike Mikata, 12 years old, was found in a box car at Monessen by thepolice in a drunken stupor. He was taken to the lockup, where after he recovered he told how he and his older brother, George Mikata, 14 years old, and another lad by the name of Walter Simiski, broke into a box car of merchandise on the siding. They stole a bottle of whiskey from a case and some other things and started for Webster. They drank so much of the whiskey that they could not proceed and started back to Monessen. Mike the younger lad was ovehcome and crawled into a box car to sleep off the effects of the whiskey The police are looking for the other two boys.

WASHINGTON-GREENE DISTRICT THE LATEST

Congressional Appointment Will Change Things

FAYETTE ONE ALONE

Western Pennsylvania to Get Three of Four New Representatives

Under a proposed plan for the reapportionment of Pennsylvania Congressional districts as permitted by the census taken in 1910, Washington county will bejoined with Greene. Beaver and Lawrence, which now compose with Washington county the twenty-fourth Congressional district will be joined with Butler, and compose the twenty-seventh. Provided the new reapportionment scheme goes into effect, Washington and Grene will be known as the twenty-sixth district. Somerset and Cambria will comprise the twenty-fourth district.

Pennsylvania, based upon the increase in poulation during the 10 years since 1900 is entitled to four additional congressmen. These additional representatives will have seats in the Sixty-third Congress,but not until the redistricting has been carried out they will represent the state at large. Under the reapportionment plan they will be assigned districts.

The Republican membership of the national house of representatives, and United States Senators Boise Penrose and George T. Oliver of Pennsylvania have agreed to the plan as proposed. State Senator J. G. Homsher, of Lancaster county is expected to offer a bill in the Legislature at Harrisburg shortly embodying the plan. Representative W. W. Griest of Lancaster has consulted with the Pennsylvania senators as well as with his house colleagues and has found that the project meet with their approval.

Western Pennsylvania will get three of the four new Congressman. Of the alloted three, Allegheny county gets one, and the other two are acounted for by making Westmoreland and Fayette counties separate districts. Westmoreland is now linked with Butler and Fayette in the district with Somerset and Greene. The fourth of the alloted number goes to Philadelphia county. The congressional ratio is one member fo reach 215,212 of population.

REMEMBER BIRTHDAYS NOTED MEN

Schools Celebrate in Honor of Washington and Lincoln

ROOMS ARE DECORATED

Programs commemorative of the lives and deeds of two noted men born during the month of February, Washington and Lincoln, were given in the various grades of the local schools Friday. The day was also observed as the first Patron's Day of the year, and a large number took advantage of the special opportunity of visiting the schools.

The programs were entirely patriotic, although in some of the grades they took the form of following out the usual line of studies. Recitations, orations and essays were given by the children. Every room and building was beautifully decorated with the national colors. In High School a literary program was given.

THE IMMORTAL WASHINGTON

While the public observes in various ways the anniversary of the birth of the immortal George Washington, which occurs today, we do perhaps realize how much we owe to the undaunted courage, the military genius and the lofty patriotism of this great man. Every school boy and girl is familiar to a certain extent with the career of Washington, but his character and genius are comparatively little comprehended by the public at large.

It may not be generally known that but for the undaunted courage and personality of Washington in the darkest days of the Revolution, the effort for independence would have collopsed entirely. Washington alone kept alive the spark of patriotism that at times was all but extinguished. When the continental congress appeared to be at the end of its resources the great Washington, as commander in chief of the "Ragged Continentals," passionately declared again and again that he would never lay down his arms, but would retreat to the wilderiness west of the Allegheny mountains if necessary and there establish a free republic in the colonies would no longer support the struggle for freedom. This undaunted spirit ultimately prevailed and had the effect of reviving the ebbing courage of the colonies.

In Washington was developed the highest type of military genius. This is not generally realized, because of the lofty and unselfish patriotism of Washington. Even in his day his military ability was recognized and admired by the great soldiers of continental Europe and the aged Fredrick the Great of Prussia, the victor of many battle fields and conquests, expressed his admiration in the presentation of a sword to Washington with the inscription, "From the old- [illegible] great Napoleon admired the genius of Washington and patterned after him in many of his campaigns.

But it is the patriot and the statesman that we most admire. Washington was wealthy for that day and accepted no salary for his services as commander-in-chief of the American army. It was his personality to a large extent that preserved order and stability after Independence had been won, and his statesmanship was of as high an order as his military genius. All his efforts were for his country and he displayed no selfishness nor desire for self advancement or personal gain. These were the things that made him great, and his patriotism is today the shining example of all the ages.

Funny Blunders.

The following is surely the funniest vote of thanks uttered for a long time. The speaker with evidently the best intentions in the world nervously stammered along through various sentences complimentary to the lecturer and finally flickered out feebly thus: "And so I propose a vote of thanks for the lecture to which we have so ably listened." The audience was so wearied that it did not notice the fatuous remark, and only the lecturer smiled.

It is fit to be placed beside another muddle headed sentence made in conversation to a north London clergyman. A man had been pressing his views energetically on a certain question when suddenly he paused and, looking at the clergyman, said briskly, "And now, sir, what is your humble opinion?"—London Tit-Bits.

Indian Names.

The finest Indian names are those which belong to the cloud clan. All these names are derived from meteorological phenomena. They are the hardest of names to translate from Indian into English. The great cloud clan Sioux, whose name was really Eclipse, was always known to the whites as Hole-in-the-Day. A certain cloud clan girl, whose name was derived from the beautiful phenomenon of the slow advance of the approaching raincloud, was known to the whites as Walking Rain—a pretty name, but one requiring explanation to a tenderfoot.—Exchange.

Old Times In New York.

In 1789 New York city maintained an official who would whip a servant, either free or slave, for the master, charging a shilling for the job. Petty thieves were branded for life with a "T" on the cheek. Mrs. Johanna Young and another woman convicted of grand larceny were driven all over the city in an open cart, then stripped to the waist and given thirty-nine lashes apiece in public and then banished, "whereupon," says the record, "they went to Philadelphia."

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"The washtub is doubling the cost of maintaining Ohio's industrial schools." This was the statement of Henry Neil, father of mothers' pensions, after a visit to the boys' reformatory at Lancaster, Ohio.

Neil and Superintendent Hastings of the reformatory, personally interviewed a great number of the boys. They found that the mothers of 60 per cent of the unfortunate youngsters were doing washing. Most of the boys came from large families where the mother had to take in washing to support her children.

One boy had just arrived from Cincinnatti.

"There are five children in our family," the lad told Neil. "Mother was going out washing, but she coudn't earn enough to make ends meet, and I ran away from school and got work to help her. I was arrested for truancy and sent here."

"If the state spent one tenth of themoney on mothers' pensions that it spends to maintain the girls' school at Delaware and the boys' school at Lancaster," said Neil, "it would keep mothers and children whose only offense is poverty, together in happy homes and reduce the cost of its reformatories by one half.

"If the state would spend a small fraction of the $650,000 a year that's expended on the militia in keeping good mothers out of other folks' laundries and letting them abide in their own homes to rear their chilren properly, it would reduce by 50 per cent. the number of children in its industrial schools.

"It's cheaper in every way. It costs an average of $14 a month for thes tate to keep a boy at Lancaster Poor mothers in Chicago are keeping their families together with the aid of a pension averaging $7 for each child.

"Ohio is spending millions in trying to care for the wrecks caused by juvenile poverty, when it could by one tenth of the expense for mothers' pensions prevent the wrecks.

"Agreed," said Captain Hastings of the boys' reformatory: "I'm with you for it."

Peers and Beers.

The Percy family of England—the family of the dukes of Northumberland—preserves in its archives the Northumberland household book, a kind of steward's journal that is chiefly remarkable for its account of the incredible quantity of liquor our ancestors consumed.

Back in the middle ages, before the Prohibition movement began, the Earl and Countess of Percy, the Northumberland household book states, drank with their 7 o'clock breakfast a quart of beer and a quart of wine. For dinner, at 10 o'clock, they drank a gallon of beer and two quarts of wine. At supper they drank two quarts of beer and two quarts of wine, and at "livery," a meal which was served in the bedroom at 9 o'clock in the evening, they drank a gallon of beer and a quart of wine. That is to say, provided that the Earl and Countess of Percy drank fair, each consumed daily five quarts and a pint of beer—say, twenty-two glasses apiece—and six quarts of wine—say thirty glasses apiece, quite [illegible]

For those who seek relief from kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder ills, Doan's Kidney Pills offer hope of relief and the proof is here, in Charleroi the same as everywhere. Charleroi people have used Doan's and Charleroi people recommend Doan's, the kidney remedy used in America for fifty years. Why suffer? Why run the risk of dangerous kidney ills—fatal Bright's disease. Here's Charleroi proof. Investigate it.

Mrs. B. Mahoney, 823 McKean avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "For a long time one of our family complained of pains in the small of the back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, a box was procured at Piper's Drug Store and their use was begun. They brought such great relief that I do not hesitate to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

Mitigating Circumstance.

A Scotch baillie recently advanced to the bench had a criminal placed before him accused of some very modest violation of the law. Of course the baillie knew the prisoner well. He heard the charge stated.

"John, man, I'm sorry to see you here. We'll just fine you half a crown."

The clerk here interrened.

"But the charge is not yet proved. We have not heard the evidence."

Then the benignant baillie:

"Ah, well, John, my man, as the charge is not proved we'll just fine you eighteenpence."—London Telegraph

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE GRAND—PITTSBURG

The engagement if Miss Irene Franklin to head Mr. Davis' program of artistic vaudeville in the Grand next week, beginning Monday afternoon, February 24, is rich in the promise of delightful divertisement, for Miss Franklin, seconded by Burt Green at the piano, is a vocal carcicaturist of the first quality. She is offering a selection from a repertoire of original songs, the lyrics of which are from her own fluent pen the music by Mr. Green. Miss Franklin is topping the innovation of song by any of her old successes the audience may request but is featuring a number of new ditties—new this season and consequently never heard in Pittsburg. There are four particularly fetching numbers. One of these is called "Waiting up for Hubby" another "We've Got a New Baby at Our House," the third "Farewell, Broadway, Fare Thee Well," and the fourth means the Sea. Like all Miss Franklin's songs, there is a story to each number.

The program also introduces for the first time in several seasons the inimitable tramp juggler and silent humorist, W. C. Fields, who has been girdling the globe and tickling the ribs of every nationality under the sun. The Four Entertainers are a quartet of young men who are to blend tuneful songs with genteel comedy. Mary Barley's bull dogs will play a comedy of the music halls. Miss Barley has trained her canines so that they act of their own volition, each playing his part and making his entrance and exits like a human actor. From far off Australia comes Harry Atkinson an artist with a most remarkable vocal development, who imitates the sounds of a variety of musical instruments and recites nursery rhymes. London will contribute one of her most popular singing comediennes, Made P. Maitland, who will introduce original creations and impersonations. The J. C. Booth Trio, consisting of two men and a girl, will perform upon the bicycle introducing comic and sensational riding. Besides a variety of other attractions Mr. Davis will present a new play by the Kinemacolor motion picture process.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG.

The triumph of three cities, Chicago, Boston and New York, where it broke the record for actual receipts in real money, with record breaking runs of 150 and 200 nights in each place, comes Lew Fields' All Star "Hanky Panky" company on it's triumphal return for a week's engagement at the Alvin Theatre, Pittsburg. Commencing Monday, February 24, with the usual matinees.

"Hanky Panky" is just what it's title seems to indicate and that is a pot-pourri of screamingly funny nonsense, varied by songs, dances and spectacle on a mammoth scale. It is a show that requires a clever company and that has always been Lew Fields' long suit; providing the right sort of people.

Edgar Smith, E. Ray Goetz and A. Baldwin Sloane wrote the book, lyrics and music. This is the same wonderfully successful trio, who once again during the past season scored such a "knock-out" with their latest success, "The Sun Dodgers."

Among the principals are Max Rogers, (surviving members of the [illegible] ry Cooper, Hugh Comeron, Clay Smith, Christine Nielsen, Myrtle Gilbert, Flo May, Virginia Evans, Wm. Montgomery and Florence Moore.

Among the song hits in "Hanky Panky" are "Where the Eidelweiss is Blooming," "Rose of Pyramid Land," "The Lyre Bird and the Jay," "Meet me at the Stage Door Tonight," "The Million Dollar Ball," "Dixie Love"

PROPOSALS FOR THE PUBLIC PRINTING AND BINDING FOR THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA. In compliance with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly, entitled An act to create the Department of Public Printing and Binding, to carry out the provisions of section twelve, article three of the Constitution, in relation to the public printing and binding and the supply of paper and other materials therefor," approved the 7th day of February, A. D. 1905, and the amended act thereto, approved May 11, 1911, I hereby advertise for sealed proposals for executing all the public printing and binding of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the term of four years from the first day of July next, at a certain rate per centum below the rates specified in said act and the rates and conditions set forth in forms of proposals to be submitted by each bidder. All proposals must be sealed up and endorsed "Proposals for the Public Printing and Binding," and be delivered to me on the fourth Tuesday of February, A. D. 1913, being the 25th day of the month, before twelve o'clock M., and the bidder or bidders must accompany his or their proposal with a bond to the Commonwealth, with at least two sufficient sureties, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars, conditioned for the acceptance of the contract and faithful performance of the work in the manner provided for in said act.

The sufficiency of said bond and the sureties thereto must be certified to by the judge or judges of the county in which said sureties reside, as required by said act.

All proposals will be opened by me in the presence of those bidding, at my office in the State Capitol in the city of Harrisburg, at twelve o'clock M. of said fourth Tuesday, being the 25th day of February, A. D. 1913, and all the printing and binding publicly alloted to the person or persons who propose to execute the same at the highest rate per centum below the rates fixed by the schedule annexed to the aforesaid acts of the General Assembly, and the rates as fixed by the Superintendent of Public Printing and Binding in said proposal, and who shall give the bond required by law, said allotment to be approved by the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and not to be binding until so approved.

Blank bonds and blank forms of proposals will be furnished on application to me, and specimen samples as a standard for quality of work which the contractor or contractors will be required to execute can be seen at the office of the Superintendent of Public Printing and Binding.

Roman Masons' Tools.

The excavations at Pompeii and Herculaneum have unearthed masons' tools much resembling those in use today and demonstrated the freer use of large tiles, the employment of iron to [illegible] and the use of a kind of concrete of which lime was the binding medium and finely broken brick a favorite material. The dome of the Pantheon, built in the first century of the Christian era, still testifies to the enduring nature of the concrete superstructure, albeit bound with lime and not with cement.—National Magazine.

Given Names

SOUNDS FUNNY, DOESN'T IT?

BUT that's just what we mean. We are selling these little garment markers and they save any amount of trouble, when the garment comes back from the laundry. They can be used for marking linens as well,---they're washable ---and they are easily attached.

These names are woven in white linen, twelve names to the strip---such names as John, James, Mary, Agnes or any of the less used names to be found in our stock. We carry one thousand names, and should there be any we do not have, we can get them in a few days' time.

Put up twelve to the package, 10c. Ask to see them.

COMMITTEE OF 100 AT WORK AT WASHINGTON

Washington has a Committee of One Hundred, and this week it met and passed resolutions commending and approving the action of the borough council in dismissing a police officer charged with drunkenness. The committee also deplored the action of the chairman of the police committee and all other councilmen who voted aginst such dismissal. District Attorney R. G. Miller was also commended for his action in prosecuting serious violations of the law and taking the initiative in these matters and following them up with energy.

A resolution was also passed by the committee urging all parents to keep their children under the ages of 18 years and especially girls off the streets after nightfall. The committee urges council to enforce the curfew law and make all persons under the age of 18 years subject to the curfew.

HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS FAST WASHINGTON

The Charleroi High School basketball team won its fifth straight game when on Friday night it defeated the East Washington High team by the score of 39 to 12. Though the score wouldn't show it the game was a good one, and was fast all the way through. Charleroi had little difficulty in maintaining the lead throughout. The lineup:

Charleroi—39		East Wash—12
Wagner, Speers	F	McCleary
Stahlman	F	Villinger
Gant	C	Brownlee
Nutt	G	Kitchner, Shearer
Campbell	C	McNary

Field goals—Wagner, Stahlman9, Gaut 3, Nutt 3, Campbell 2, McCleary 4, Villinger. Goals from foul, Wagner 2, Stahlman 1, McCleary 2. Referee—L. Wagner. Timekeeper—Grim.

Former Charleroi Man Honored.

A clipping from a Los Angeles paper has been handed the Mail which tells of a number of citizens of that city being entertained at a banquet given by the mayor of the city and the chief of police. Among the guests present was Joseph G. Godissart, formerly of Charleroi.

General Adam Badeau told a good story of a visit he once made in London with two friends. They had been invited to a swell reception in the west end, and when they arrived they were met by a flunkey of gigantic stature, with nose high in the air.

"Names, please," he said. And the spokesman replied modestly, "General Badeau, Colonel Grant and Colonel Cook."

With imposing stride the flunkey advanced to the doors, threw them wide open and announced, "General Banjo, Colonel Drunk and the colonel's cook!"

Father of this Country

A young man of the 18th century saved his country and became "first in peace, first in war and first in the hearts of his countrymen"—and gained the title of "Father of his Country."

The young man of today who saves a goodly portion of his earnings will be the one to command first place in his community—and he won't need to make nearly as great a sacrifice as did Washington.

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL

Misses Anna Toynbee and Edna Walley of Morgantown, W. Va., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lewis of Washington avenue.

Gilbert Uptegraft is spending the day in Waltersburg.

Rev. L. W. Shey is in Pittsburg today.

W. Y. Brady, supervisor of work for the government on the construction of the Charleroi Federal building went to Pittsburg Friday night to attend the banquet of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Work was sarted this morning by the railroad towards cleaning the approach to the freight house here of mud and water. This is said to be the result of activity of council and the Business Men's Association to have a better driveway to the freight station.

"COLDS"

Caused by Lowered Vital Resistance.
What To Do For This.

It is a well known fact that when a person is run-down, stomach out of ordder, or the system overloaded with waste matter vital resistance is lowered and colds and coughs are easily contracted.

The safest and suerst method we know to overcome this condition is by taking our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol. In the most natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, promotes a hearty appetite, enrishes the blood and creates strength for every organ in the body and as specific for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles Vinol is unexcelled.

Mr. Albert Porter of Richmond Hill, L. I., says: "All winter I had a bad cold and a cough which I could not get rid of, and was badly rundown besides. Vinol was the one remedy which cured my cough and made me well in every way."

Try a bottle of Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to help you.

WASHINGTON SOCIAL HELD BY P. H. C.

A George Washington social was held by Charleroi Circle, No. 303, Protected Home Circle Friday night, it being the first annual event of the kind. The hall was uniquely and beautifully decorated, John McIlvaine and Bert Mitchell having attended to this feature. Favors of hatchets were given. Visitors were present from Monessen, California and Belle Vernon. The event closed with square dancing. A special committee looked after the event, and the women members of this committee were dressed as Colonial dames. The committee was composed of Misses Rilla Field, Mary Allison, Romola Anderson, Mrs. Bert Mitchell, Mrs. Nell Strauser, Mrs. C. Blanchard, Mrs. James McCoy, Mrs Samuel Riggle, C. B. Copeland, H. Booth and Bert Mitchell.
